

BRITISH AGAIN LOCATE DE WET

Boers Gain Recruits, but Not Yet Ready to Attack.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 11.—De Wet was last reported in the neighborhood of Bothaville. All the towns in Orange Colony, on the main line of the railway, are strongly held by the British and the Boers show no disposition to approach them.

A small commando, about two hundred strong, crossed the Orange River near Allwal. It was met on the borders of the Allwal, Wodehouse and Barkley east districts by a body of police and mounted farmers and was repulsed with some loss. It will probably attempt to cross the river again.

CAPE TOWN, Jan. 11.—The British warship Sybil has anchored in Lambert's Bay and landed a force of blue-jackets and a number of guns. This force has constructed intrenchments on the beach and is now being reinforced. The intention apparently is to move toward Ceres and Worcester.

According to latest reliable reports, another party of 500 Boers has reached the Dore River, seventy miles south of Calvinia. The authorities are doing all in their power to meet the situation. Refugees from Calvinia and Clan William are flocking to Ficksburg Road. They state that many poor whites are certain to join the Boers. There are also many bitter enemies in the neighborhood of Clan William and Malmesburg, who openly declare that they intend to join the invaders.

FAMILY FLED FROM FIRE.

Discovered Flames in Time to Get Out in Safety.

Fire destroyed the residence of John McReel, 23 Townsend street, Clifton, Staten Island, at 3 o'clock this morning. The house was a handsome two-story frame cottage, and McReel, his wife and three children, were asleep upstairs when Mrs. McReel was awakened by the smell of smoke. She went down stairs and discovered the fire under the floor of the kitchen. The flames burst through as she looked. Hurrying up stairs, she aroused her husband and children and all escaped.

Chief Lestrain and the firemen were soon at the scene, but the cottage was destroyed despite their efforts, the loss being about $2,000.

AGAINST HETTY GREEN.

Her Objection to the Howland Will Case not Sustained.

BOSTON, Jan. 11.—In the disputed trusteeship account in the Silvia Howland estate, in which Mrs. Hetty Green, who is interested in the income, filed objections, Judge Fuller, of the Bristol County Probate Court, has handed down a decision saying: "After a careful consideration of the evidence I can reach no other conclusion than that Mrs. Hetty Green, with full knowledge of the willingness and desire of the trustees to avail themselves of opportunities to sell, has occupied a position of hindrance." The decision was adverse to Mrs. Green.

MEN'S OVERCOATS.

Strictly all-wool, in blue and black smooth Kersey cloth, wide French facings and extra fine Farmer's satin linings, first-class workmanship. A garment made to serve at least two seasons' wear. Sizes from 34 to 44 chest; a good, honest $10.00 overcoat at 3.92.

3.92.

MEN'S OVERCOATS.

High-grade, winter-weight, strictly all-wool materials, up-to-date cloths, such as royal vicuna, chevrons, imported elyans and foreign frieses. All handsomely made and trimmed, some with "silk" others with vertical pockets, turned-up cuffs with velvet piping. There are also blue and black kerseys in this lot; $13 and $15 values, all sizes; the best value in New York at 6.66.

THE RAGLAN.

The season's most popular creation, the long, loose-fitting coat, made with slash pockets and shown in pretty shades of Oxford, lined throughout with a very fine imported serge. Blue sleeve linings; sizes from 34 to 42 chest. These coats are the same as those you have seen at $15.00 and $18.00. To-morrow's surprising price is 8.88.

MEN'S OVERCOATS.

500 of the very finest Gentlemen's OVERCOATS. Are the very latest foreign effects, in blue and black, with smooth cloths. Blue, black and brown velvet Kerseys and Oxford and Cambridge chevrons; some lined throughout with silk, others half lined. Not one worth less than $20.00 and some as high as $25.00; to-morrow's sale price, 9.80.

Saturday Bet. 9 and 10.
